Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati introduces new website

CINCINNATI, OH, December 4, 2013 – Using a clean, modern “tile” design Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati’s new website is designed for easy navigation. The site is densely populated with information intended to keep area nonprofits up-to-date on the latest trends and directions of the sector overall.

The site’s six major tabs contain a wealth of information within each:

- About ESCC – contains information on our staff, board, clients, volunteers and funders.
- ESCC Services are laid out in four separate categories for easy navigation: consulting, coaching, training and Nonprofit Leadership Institute.
- The Case Studies & Testimonials tab provides a look at the nonprofits we have served as well as feedback we have collected from satisfied clients, funders and volunteers.
- The News tab is a look at our media coverage, as well as press releases issued.
- Under the Resources tab we are providing thought leadership pieces and a blog that covers subjects of interest and latest trends in the nonprofit sector.
- The password protected Member Section is a dedicated area for ESCC Volunteer Consultants to provide them with tools to assist in their project work.

“Our new website is designed to be a resource to the nonprofit community,” according to Andy McCreanor, Executive Director and CEO of Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati. “By sharing useful information about best practices and providing tools to help nonprofit organizations be more effective and efficient, we are helping to strengthen our community as a whole.”

Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati (ESCC) is dedicated to enhancing the lives of all individuals in the Greater Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky area. The nonprofit organization, headquartered in Blue Ash, OH, gives back to the community by transferring knowledge and expertise through consulting, coaching and leadership development. The organization was founded in 1995 and currently has 125 members who volunteer their services. ESCC is one of 27 affiliates across the nation that comprises ESC-US.
