

Bob Berberich

Volunteer Consultant

Joined ESCC: 2014

ESCC

10945 Reed Hartman Highway, Suite 108
Cincinnati, OH. 45242
Phone: 513.791.6230

Professional History

- Clear Choice Coaching
- InfoSolutions, Inc./Search Technologies
- Dioceses of Covington
- Catholic Social Services
- Covington Latin School

Education

- M.A., Theology, Catholic University, Washington, D.C.
- B.A., Philosophy, St. Pius X College, Erlanger, KY

Bob is skilled in coaching, training, information technology, and project management. Currently, he is the owner of Clear Choice Coaching. Prior to that, he spent 20 years as co-founder and president of InfoSolutions. When the company merged with Search Technologies, Bob became technical manager.

At a younger age, Bob was ordained as a Catholic priest and was assigned to the Diocese of Covington for more than five years. During that time he taught at Covington Latin School. He also served at Catholic Social Services as a priest for the deaf community as well as provided services for the deaf.

Bob's community activities include providing training and facilitation services for the local Mankind Project. He is also a member of Rotary, and volunteers with Clermont County Safety Net Alliance and with United Way of Greater Cincinnati.

ESCC Experience

Bob has completed ESCC's training courses in board development, coaching, and strategic thinking.

We strengthen nonprofits to reach bold community goals.