Duane is a career educator. He spent more than 33 years as a superintendent in both Kentucky and Ohio school districts. Prior to retirement, he served as Scholastic Audit Team Chairperson for the Kentucky Department of Education.

Duane's knowledge of the nonprofit world is enhanced by his past involvement as a board member of the Chamber of Commerce, YMCA, Junior Achievement, Rotary, and College Board.

ESCC Experience

Duane has successfully completed ESCC's courses in strategic planning, board development, and coaching for change. He also has served on ESCC's fund development committee, along with having been a coach with both the Nonprofit Leadership Institute and EXCEL. He has worked on board development, administrative, organizational development, and financial/personnel administration projects. Currently, he is the co-program manager for Learn 21.

We strengthen nonprofits to reach bold community goals.
