

Jim McDonough

Volunteer Consultant

Joined ESCC: 2013

ESCC

10945 Reed Hartman Highway, Suite 108
Cincinnati, OH 45242
Phone: 513.791.6230

Professional History

- University of Cincinnati, Engineering, and Clermont College

Education

- Ph.D., Civil Engineering, University of Cincinnati
- M.B.A., Finance, University of Cincinnati
- M.S., Civil Engineering, Northeastern University
- B.S., Civil Engineering, Northeastern University

Professional Associations

- American Society of Civil Engineers
- American Society for Engineering Education

A life-long educator, Jim is the Dean Emeritus of the University of Cincinnati Clermont College, and continues to teach in its mathematics department. Early in his career, Jim served as Visiting Professor at Kabul University, Afghanistan. Throughout his career, Jim received numerous accolades and national awards for distinguished service and outstanding teaching.

Active in the Cincinnati nonprofit community with extensive governing and leadership experience, Jim has served as a trustee on the boards of Clermont County Senior Services, United Way of Greater Cincinnati, Clermont 20/20, Clermont Educational Opportunities, and the Clermont County Chamber of Commerce. Jim also acted as a Loaned Executive to the United Way of Greater Cincinnati Eastern Area.

ESCC Experience

Jim has completed ESCC's courses in strategic thinking, board development, and coaching. Jim served on the project team that developed a plan to create a successful STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) elementary school for Cincinnati Public Schools.

We strengthen nonprofits to reach bold community goals.