

Mick Fusco

Volunteer Consultant

Joined ESCC: 2012

ESCC

10945 Reed Hartman Highway, Suite 108
Cincinnati, OH. 45242
Phone: 513.791.6230

Professional History

- Segue Strategies
- Ohio Valley Goodwill Rehabilitation Center
- City of Las Vegas
- United States Air Force

Education

- M.B.A., Indiana Wesleyan University
- B.S., Management, Indiana Wesleyan University

Mick brings extensive nonprofit, civic and military experience to ESCC. He is founder and CEO of Segue Strategies. Previously, Mick was the Grants Manager for Ohio Valley Goodwill Rehabilitation Center. Prior to moving to Cincinnati from Las Vegas, Mick was a Deputy City Marshall for the City of Las Vegas. During Mick's military service in the Air Force, he served in a variety of positions in Europe, Asia, and Central America culminating with appointment as the Chief advisor to the Base Commander at Nellis Air Force Base in Las Vegas. He headed efforts to build a professional development center for enlisted personnel that became the model on several military installations as a best practice.

Mick's current volunteer activities include serving as chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee for the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection.

ESCC Experience

Mick completed ESCC's training in strategic thinking and board development. He assisted with planning projects for St. Rita School for the Deaf, Norwood Service League, United Coalition for Animals, and Families Connected of Clermont County. He has served as a coach for NLI and EXCEL, and most recently, helped develop the curriculum for the newly established ADVANCE program, in which he now serves as a co-trainer.

We strengthen nonprofits to reach bold community goals.