Bob is an experienced management professional who spent more than 33 years with Procter & Gamble. His expertise includes capital management, facilities design management, and project development and execution. During his tenure with Procter & Gamble, Bob was based in locations throughout the world.

ESCC Experience

Bob recently completed seven years of service on the ESCC Board of Trustees. During four of those years, he served as treasurer. Bob has completed ESCC's courses in strategic thinking, coaching, board development, project management, and advanced consulting skills. Bob's expertise in capital facility design was put to use when he oversaw the construction of the Dan Beard Boy Scouts building in Evendale. He was the co-project manager on a business plan for Dress for Success and currently is an EXCEL coach.
